Some Results on Detour Distance in Graphs

Henry Escuadro

Department of Mathematics
Western Michigan University

For two vertices u and v in a connected graph G, the detour distance from u to v is the length of a longest $u - v$ path in G. In this talk, we present some results on this topic.

This is a joint work with Dr. Gary Chartrand and Dr. Zhang